

G. S.Mandal's

Marathwada Institute of Technology (Polytechnic) , Chh. Sambhajinagar

LGRC Programme Report- 12 Nov 2024

Challenges and laws for working professionals

A program was organized by LGRC (Ladies Grievance and Redressal cell) for girl students of MIT Polytechnic,Chh.Sambhajinagar on November 12,2024. The speech for program was delivered by Ms.Amita Chate, Advocate, High Court, Chh.Sambhajinagar.

Ms.Amita Chate, Advocate, High Court, presently practicing as a lawyer at Bombay High court and Chh.Sambhajingar High Court. She is having an experience of 8 years in this field. She is involved in solving different issues of crime against women, eve teasing and cases related to protection of children from sexual offenses. She is also working as a practioner for family disputes and girl problems. She also guides college level students on different issues.

The guest for the program was felicitated by,,Prof.P.U.Dharmadhikari. Preamble speech was given by Prof.P.U.Dharmadhikari, Presiding Officer(LGRC). She gave a brief idea of LGRC and it's role in institute and told girl students to come forward if they face any problem in college premises.

Ms.Amita Chate Mam delivered her speech in which she suggested all girls to be attentive while using mobile phones specially whenever girls are using different social media applications as What's App, Instagram ,Face book. She further said that girls can keep themselves safe by using proper use of media. By giving examples of some cases she gave an idea about how a girl can be trapped.

She also suggested that girls can file a complaint online or can call a toll free number if faces such problems. She told various laws and how they could work. She guided girls by giving certain ways if they faces any difficulty while using social media apps.internet banking, faulty products,bad quality food, or even bribing also.She gave a brief idea about Prevention, Prohibition & Redressal Act 2013,consumer laws, cyber crime laws. Any working professional lady or girl must be aware of basic rules and can utilize them in her need also. She also encouraged students to speak out their problems without any hesitation. She also interacted with girl students and cleared their doubts and asked them to save emergency contact numbers in their mobile phones.

After a healthy interactive session the program was over.

